

2TG Sport Breakfast Seminar Game-changers?

Recent developments in English contract law and what they mean for sports lawyers

Please join us for this breakfast seminar / discussion on Thursday 26 July 2018 at 08:30 chaired by Nina Goolamali QC, Head of 2TG Sport.

Will Clerk and Luka Krsljanin will consider current issues in sports contract disputes, taking you through recent decisions from the Supreme Court and exploring their practical implications for commercial sports litigation.

Date: Thursday 26 July

Time: 08:30

Duration: 1 hour

Venue: 2 Temple Gardens, London EC4Y 9AY

CPD: 1 CPD Hours

Nina Goolamali QC

Described as “one of the most personable and knowledge barristers around”, Nina leads the 2TG Sports Team and is ranked as a Tier 1 barrister in the Legal 500 in Sport. She holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Sports Law from King’s College, London and is on the Editorial Board of LawInSport, a leading international online sports law publication.

William Clerk

Specialising in commercial law, insurance law and sports law, having acted for and/or advised various national motorsports associations, the MCC, several football clubs, individual players / athletes, and numerous other private entities engaged in sports contract and other disputes.

Luka Krsljanin

Specialising in heavyweight commercial sports litigation, and cross-border disputes, he is described as a “bright and self-confident advocate” in Chambers & Partners. Luka is currently acting for West Ham United Football Club in the much-publicised London Stadium litigation in the High Court. He has also acted in various other commercial football disputes, including at expert determinations and mediations.

Click here to RSVP and reserve your free place