

JURISDICTION SEMINAR

Tuesday 26 November 2019, London

Charles Dougherty QC and Marie Louise Kinsler QC will consider issues relating to jurisdiction in multi-party claims, focussing on parallel proceedings and the rules governing jurisdiction against additional defendants in the context of both the EU and non-EU rules. This will include consideration of the recent decision in JSC Commercial Bank Privatbank v Kolomoisky [2019] EWCA Civ 1708 in which the Court of Appeal examined controversial issues relating to parallel proceedings and claims against multiple defendants.

Charles is a leading commercial silk who specialises in private international law, insurance & reinsurance, travel, commercial fraud and product liability claims. He is recommended as a leading silk in 7 categories in the legal directories, and is specifically recognised for his private international law expertise. He is an assistant editor of European Civil Practice (Sweet & Maxwell, 2nd ed) and a director of the Bar Mutual.

“His expertise in conflict of laws and jurisdiction issues is unparalleled.”
Chambers UK 2020

Marie Louise specialises in private international law and EU law. She has a particular reputation for appellate work involving novel points of law. In recent years, she has appeared in 5 cases in the Supreme Court including in the landmark cases of Vedanta Resources plc v Lungowe and Brownlie v Four Seasons Holdings. Alongside her practice, Marie Louise lectures on a part-time basis on private international law at Cambridge University. She is recognised in the legal directories for her expertise in private international law.

“A formidable standing in the market” Chambers UK 2020

“At the forefront of complex jurisdictional issues” Chambers UK 2018.

Date: Tuesday 26 November 2019

Time: 6.00 to 7.00pm, followed by drinks and canapés

Venue: 2 Temple Gardens, Temple, London EC4Y 9AY

CPD: 1 CPD hour

RSVP: seminars@2tg.co.uk