

Rebecca Brown

Call 2023

clerks@2tg.co.uk

+44 (0)20 7822 1200

Rebecca Brown graduated with an LLB (Honours) from the University of Sydney, qualifying as a lawyer in NSW, Australia.

She holds an LLM in International Law from the University of Cambridge, where she is completing a PhD in global health governance. Since late 2023, she has served as an adviser to South Africa in its proceedings before the International Court of Justice.

Rebecca's supervisor is currently Timothy Killen.

Awards

Selected Awards

- ANZSIL/AYBIL Student Paper Prize (2023)
- M. Tapp Studentship (Gonville & Caius College) (2021 – 2024)
- Cambridge International Scholarship (2021 – 2024)
- Ocean Yearbook Student Prize (2019)
- Venour V. Nathan Prize for Australian History (2018)
- Australian National Champions, Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition (2018)

Education

- LLM in International Law, University of Cambridge (First)
- Grad Dip in Classical Arabic, Charles Sturt University (High Distinction)
- LLB (Honours), University of Sydney (Distinction)
- BA in Linguistics, University of Sydney (High Distinction)